The Playwright Circle is a community of theater enthusiasts who share a passion for new work and are invested in keeping the American theater vibrant and relevant. PLAYWRIGHT CIRCLE donors provide the Center with substantial annual support to ensure we can provide critical new play development resources to some of the most exciting playwrights contributing to American theater today.

In return for their support, Playwright Circle donors enjoy special year-round opportunities to connect with the playwrights and engage in the work they help to support at the Center.

$1,000-2,999

All the benefits above, plus:

- MEET THE PLAYWRIGHTS SERIES—unique opportunities for Playwright Circle donors to come together and engage with the exciting playwrights whose works are currently being developed at the Center. These events take place prior to the workshop and staged reading of a Center writer's new play.
- ON THE TOWN events—organized Playwright Circle donor outings with the Producing Artistic Director to see plays by Playwrights' Center writers when being produced at Twin Cities theaters.
- MEET THE NEXT GENERATION event—opportunity to meet and connect with Core Apprentice student playwrights and dramaturgs who are part of the Center's New Plays on Campus Program.
- PLAYWRIGHT CIRCLE-level recognition in all programs, on the website and in the Annual Report.

$3,000 and up

All the benefits above, plus:

- Exclusive travel opportunities with the Producing Artistic Director to theaters across the country where Playwrights' Center writers have their plays being produced.
